A counselor who takes a program of continuing education which presents the same material that they took during the previous 2-year period will not get credit for taking the subsequent program of continuing education.

A counselor is subject to disciplinary action by the board if he:

- (a) Fails to provide to the board information regarding their participation in a program of continuing education within 30 days after receiving a request from the board; or
- (b) Submits to the board false or inaccurate information regarding their participation in a program of continuing education

1. An application for the renewal of a license or certificate as an alcohol and drug abuse counselor must be accompanied by an affidavit evidencing the completion by the counselor of at least the minimum number of required hours of continuing education during the 2 years immediately preceding the date of the application. The board will randomly select such affidavits to verify the authenticity of the information set forth in the affidavit.

2. A counselor shall maintain sufficient documentation verifying the information relating to their continuing education for at least 3 years after the date on which the affidavit is executed (i.e. renewal submitted). A counselor will not be given credit for any hours of continuing education that are not supported by documentation.

NAC 641C.315 Unacceptable courses and programs of education. (NRS 641C.200) The board will not approve any of the following types of courses and programs of education as a course of continuing education:

1. An orientation program for new employees.
2. An on-the-job training program presented by an agency whose primary purpose is to disseminate information on the policies or procedures of the agency.
3. An audio or a video learning tape or home study course for which there is no independent verification of successful completion.
4. A program for self-improvement.

NAC 641C.305 Affidavit of completion: Submission; verification of authenticity; maintenance of documentation. (NRS 641C.200)

NAC 641C.310 Approval of course or program of education by board. (NRS 641C.200)

1. A counselor will receive credit for hours of continuing education only if the course or program of education from which the counselor obtained the hours of continuing education has been approved by the board.
2. The provider of a course or program of education may request the approval of the board for the purposes of continuing education.
3. A counselor may request the approval of a course or program of education which is not currently approved by the board for the purposes of this section by submitting to the board a request for the approval of the course or program of education as a course of continuing education. The request must contain such information as is necessary for the board to review the course or program of education pursuant to this section and NAC 641C.315 and 641C.320.
4. The board will use the same criteria in its review and evaluation of a course or program of education as a course of continuing education, regardless of whether the request for approval was submitted by a counselor or the provider of the course or program of education.

NAC 641C.320 Requirements for approval of course or program of education.

1. Before the board will approve, or a committee of the board may recommend approval of, a course or program of education as a course of continuing education, the board or committee must be satisfied that the course or program of education:

- (a) Will be taught by a competent instructor as demonstrated by the educational, professional and teaching experience of the instructor;
- (b) Contains current and relevant educational material, which concerns alcohol and drug abuse and is applicable to the practice of counseling alcohol and drug abusers;
- (c) Is of professional quality;
- (d) Is appropriately designed for instructional purposes; and
